Vintage Vignettes

We can learn from all periods of history.
Modern doesn't always
mean it's better.
Allow me to explain.

Examine: how we see,
time, friendships,
art for its own sake,
public infrastructure,
the commons, privacy,
the skills we teach.

Or how we interpret!
entertainment, the media, our food, how
we relate to one another, opinions, the simplest
of pleasures, listening to ourselves think.

All that is to say,
don't scoff at
nor yearn for the past.
Learn from it,
and let the rest be.
